By the appointment of Bob Hughes to the position of Federal Judge in Virginia, made vacant by the death of Underwood, the President has provided for one of the defeated Republican aspirants for Governor.
There are several others still unpro-vided for, and they are now out or about to go out of office. First comes Noyes of Ohio. This illustrious statesman, who was so successful as a Probate Judge in Hamilton county, not only expected to be chosen Governor, but he had put on his war paint and given notice that he should capture the United States Senate ship.
When the election returns came in he changed his mind, and is now looking to our noble President for some humble position whereby he can earn his bread. There comes, then, Washington, of Wisconsin. He was another of those geniuses of modern ambition who not only expected to be Governor but to go from that to the Senate; and he, too, concluded not to aspire to such hollow vanities; he made up his mind the minute he too, concluded not to aspire to such hollow vanities; he made up his mind the minute he saw the electireturns. There is also Davis, of Texas.
He has been badly used, up with the rest, and nothing less than a second-rate foreign mission can be expected for him. Of course the good Mr.
Grant will look after these alien statesmen—they fell while upholding his beautiful policy—Pomeroy's Democrat.

In the advertising pages of a January magazine are the prospectuses of twenty-five newspapers, wherein is set forth the fact that each of these papers is better in every respect than any paper published. This surprises us. When we incorporated in an advertisement for this journal the statement that the paper contained the best stories, the freshest correspondence, etc., we thought we had a truly something original. But seeing those other advertisements leads us to believe that we have come upon a dreadful coincidence. And we wish to say here that we pointedly back down from every claim we have made for the superiority of this paper. It is our desire to work in an unobscured field, so we cheerfully take our place as a humble and unpretending journal, and although we may occasionally feel lonesome, we shall take comfort in remembering that we have no rival.—Courier-Journal

A rival to the famous Gatling mitrailleuse has appeared in the shape of another invention by J. P. Taylor, of Knoxville, Tenn., which is claimed to be double in capacity to that of Dr. Gatling. This, however, remains to be proved, for the Gatling gun has stood the severest test possible, and it is extremely doubtful if it can be much improved, and if it is such improvement, it should be looked for at the hands of its inventor and not in the attempt of a rival. At recent trials at Fort Monroe, the one-inch calibre Gatling gun, when firing canister cartridges, discharged in one and a half minutes 5,355 balls; and recently at Fort Madison, near Annapolis, a 50-100 inch calibre Gatling gun was fired one hundred thousand times, and 64,000 cartridges were fired rapidly without stopping to clean the barrels, and without injury to the gun.

The Democrats of Texas are a hard hearted set. We expected they would give the Republicans a good whaling, but were not prepared to see the party buried out of all possible chance of resurrection. Davis was beaten by about forty thousand majority, which is ten thousand more than we had reasonably hoped for.
Not content with this, however, the Democrats seem to have taken almost entire possession of the State Senate; in all the thirty districts only four Republicans have been chosen. What an efficient quartette that will be when it comes to party measures.
Really, we think the Republicans have been cruelly dealt with—they have been all but exterminated.— Pomeroy's Democrat.

The Toledo Blade has an article headed "How to teach a Child Honesty." The method seems to be a good one, and it is a pity that it was not adopted by his teachers when the editor of the Blade was a child.

The Federal Treasury is empty.
The best thing the people can do is to let it remain so until they get some honest men in office.

The State Gazette, of Austin, Texas, compares Senator Carpenter to Don Juan. Now we protest against this lawless slandering of such a character as Don Juan.

West Texas has been having beautiful moonlight nights, but at we've been having "beautiful snow" days.
